

YOUTH CAMP

"The path of the Horse and Bow", Bulgaria

DEAR FRIENDS,

We present to your attention the opportunity for participation in the international youth camp "The path of the Horse and Bow"

GENERAL INFORMATION

The international youth camp "The path of the Horse and Bow" is situated at the base of the "Chepan" mountain near the village of Lopushnya. At camps disposal there is a herd of 13 horses, being kept in natural environment, authentic Mongol yurts and training grounds for riding and archery.

The camp starts in the beginning of June 2013 and will continue to the late Autumn. Young people of age 18 to 35 could take part. One shift is expected to take 5 days with 4 sleepovers.

Important part of living at the camp is the yurt which serves not only as a place for sleep, but also as a meeting haven after trainings and evening talks round the fireplace.

This camp is intended for every young person with adventurous spirit who would like to come in touch with the history of the ancient Bulgars and also for these who would like to escape the day-to-day city life and would like to dive in one different world -a world of galloping horses, bows and yurts.

Fee: The youth participants are expected to pay a fee of 298 euro for a whole shift that covers:

- Insurance;
- Return trip by Bus/Van from Sofia (Central Bus Station) to "The path of the Horse and Bow" camp;
- Accommodation- Mongol yurts;

- Food: 3 meals per day /breakfast, lunch and dinner/;

- Practice in horse riding for beginners;

- Riding and mountain hikes;
- Trips on a horseback;

- Practice in archery with traditional bows
- Bareback riding
- Group riding with combat tactics application
- Practice with spears (on foot and on horseback)

