

EVS - Nexes Interculturals

Long term EVS: October 2018 – July 2019

Deadline for sending your CV & motivation letter: 2nd of April 2018

Background:

Nexes Interculturals de Joves per Europa, a non-profit association founded in 1999 and located in the Gothic district of Barcelona, is looking for a volunteer who would start his/her project in October 2018

Nexes aims to work locally and globally in order to promote intercultural learning, stimulate active participation - especially of young people, promote democracy, human rights, international cooperation and combating social exclusion, in order to lay the foundations for a sustainable social transformation that sees diversity as an enriching resource.

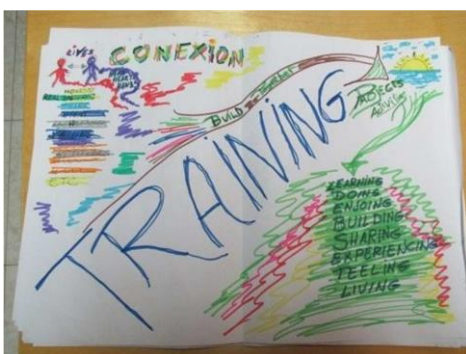

We can define as specific objectives of Nexes: training and empowering of young people, youth leaders and multipliers; providing information and guidance for young people; awareness for active participation, citizenship and social change; cooperation, education for peace, human rights and intercultural dialogue; networking at local and international level.

Tasks of the EVS volunteer:

The volunteer will participate in and promote different activities of Nexes:

- support in the implementation of local and international educational projects
- development of cultural and intercultural initiatives proposed by the host organization for young people who realize their activities of Vocational Educational Training.
- collaboration in the communication activities of the association: preparing the newsletter, updating the website, Facebook, creating new materials
- maintain contact with the volunteers interested in EVS projects of Nexes
- support in the administrative work
- monitoring and evaluation with a tutor and supervisor

The volunteer will participate in a Spanish language course and will have a chance to create his/her own personal project as well.

Profile of the EVS volunteer:

To Nexes is important, more than anything, that the volunteer has a lot of enthusiasm and motivation, that will allow him/her in the future to further develop new skills acquired in this field and continue promoting and working on issues such as the participation and active citizenship, non-formal education and intercultural learning.

The fact of being a local volunteer already or having experience in the associative field will be a plus.

Practical information:

Place: Barcelona (Spain)

The duration of the EVS project: 10 months (1.10.2018 – 31.07.2019)

The volunteer will have 30-35 hours of work/week.

The volunteer can work on different tasks depending on his/her own interest and capabilities.

Each volunteer needs also a sending organization; please make sure that you have one!

Volunteer needs to be registered in the European Solidarity Corps database: https://europa.eu/youth/solidarity_en

How to apply:

If you are interested in this project, please send your CV (stating your date of birth) and motivation letter until 2nd of April 2018 to: evs.nexes@gmail.com
